COMPLAINT
(Injunctive Relief Demanded)

Plaintiff, RUDOLPH BETANCOURT, on his behalf and on behalf of all other individuals similarly situated (sometimes referred to as “Plaintiff”), hereby sues the Defendant, NAVARRE LODGING, INC., a Foreign Corporation (sometimes referred to as “Defendant”), for Injunctive Relief, and attorney’s fees, litigation expenses, and costs pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. § 12181 et seq. (“ADA”), and injunctive relief, damages, attorney’s fees, litigation expenses, and costs pursuant to Ohio Disability Discrimination Law, O.R.C. 4112.01 et seq.

COUNT I
VIOLATION OF TITLE III OF THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT, 42 U.S.C. § 12181, et seq.

1. Plaintiff, Rudolph Betancourt, is an individual residing in Fenwick, MI, in the county of Montcalm.
2. Defendant’s property, Comfort Inn East, is located at 2930 Navarre Avenue, Oregon, OH 43616 in Lucas County.
3. Venue is properly located in the Northern District of Ohio because venue lies in the judicial district of the property situs. The Defendant’s property is located in and does business within this judicial district.

4. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and 28 U.S.C. § 1343, this Court has been given original jurisdiction over actions which arise from the Defendant's violations of Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. § 12181 et seq. The Court has supplemental jurisdiction over the State Law Claims, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1367.

5. Plaintiff, Rudolph Betancourt is a Michigan resident, is sui juris, and qualifies as an individual with disabilities as defined by the ADA. Mr. Betancourt is a double amputee who uses a wheelchair to ambulate. Mr. Betancourt travels throughout Ohio and Michigan in connection with his involvement with College Connect, a baseball league for kids 16 years and under. He stayed at the subject property, along with his daughter, in connection with baseball games being played nearby. Mr. Betancourt has visited the Oregon, Ohio area on numerous occasions, including going to Cedar Point with his family. Rudolph Betancourt stayed as a hotel guest of the property, which forms the basis of this lawsuit, on July 28, 2020, and intends to return to the hotel in the near future, once it has been made accessible for his use, and to avail himself of the goods and services offered to the public of the property, in connection with his activities with College Connect and to enjoy the Oregon, Ohio area.

6. Defendant owns, leases, leases to, or operates a place of public accommodation as defined by the ADA and the regulations implementing the ADA, 28 CFR 36.201(a) and 36.104. Defendant is responsible for complying with the obligations of the ADA. The place of public accommodation that the Defendant owns, operates, leases or leases to is known as Comfort Inn East and is located at 2930 Navarre Avenue, Oregon, OH 43616 in Summit County.

7. Rudolph Betancourt has a realistic, credible, existing and continuing threat of discrimination from the Defendant's non-compliance with the ADA with respect to this property as described but not necessarily limited to the allegations in paragraph 9 of this Complaint. Plaintiff has reasonable grounds to believe that he will continue to be subjected to discrimination in violation of the ADA by the Defendant. Rudolph Betancourt desires to visit Comfort Inn East not only to avail himself of the goods and services available at the property but to assure himself that this property is in compliance with the ADA so that he and others similarly situated will have full and equal enjoyment of the property without fear of discrimination.

8. The Defendant has discriminated against the individual Plaintiff by denying him access to, and full and equal enjoyment of, the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages and/or accommodations of the buildings, as prohibited by 42 U.S.C. § 12182 et seq.

9. The Defendant has discriminated, and is continuing to discriminate, against the Plaintiff in violation of the ADA by failing to, inter alia, have accessible facilities by January 26, 1992 (or January 26, 1993, if Defendant has 10 or fewer employees and gross receipts of $500,000 or less). A preliminary inspection of Comfort Inn East has shown that violations exist. These violations, which Plaintiff Betancourt observed and encountered, include, but are not limited to:

Accessible Routes

- a) There is no marked access aisle adjacent to the vehicle pull-up space of the passenger loading zone making it difficult for the plaintiff to safely traverse to the lobby entrance, in violation of sections 503.3 and 503.3.3 of the 2010 ADA Standards, whose resolution is readily achievable.
- b) There is not a compliant path of travel connecting the accessible parking spaces to the accessible entrances making it difficult for the plaintiff to traverse on the accessible route within the site, in violation of Section 206.2.2 of the 2010 ADA Standards, whose resolution is readily achievable.
- c) The accessible ramp is projecting into the vehicular traffic lanes making it difficult for the plaintiff to utilize, in violation of section 406.5 in the 2010 ADA Standards, whose resolution is readily achievable.
- d) The accessible parking stalls do not provide a marked access aisle as required making it difficult for the plaintiff to transfer from the chair to the vehicle, in violation of section 502.3.3 in the 2010 ADA Standards, whose resolution is readily achievable.
- e) The accessible parking stall signage does not meet the minimum height requirement of 60 inches from the ground to the bottom of the sign as required making it difficult for the plaintiff to identify the the accessible parking stall, in violation of section 502.6 in the 2010 ADA Standards, whose resolution is readily achievable.

- f) The accesible parking stall is missing compliant signage as required making it difficult for the plaintiff to identify the accessible parking stall, in violation of section 502.6 in the 2010 ADA Standards, whose resolution is readily achievable.

Guest Room 101

- g) The guestroom signage is not in the compliant location as required, in violation of sections 703.4.1 and 703.4.2 in the 2010 ADA Standards, whose resolution is readily achievable.
- h) The door does not provide the 18 inches of latch side clearance for a pull door as required making it difficult for the plaintiff to operate the door, in violation of section 404.2.4.1 in the 2010 ADA Standards, whose reolution is readily achievable.
- i) The curtain rod requires tight grasping to operate making it difficult for the plaintiff to use, in violation of section 309.4 of the 2010 ADA Standards, whose resolution is readily achievable.
- j) The iron, ironing board, and the closet rod and shelf are located above the maximum height allowance of 48 inches above the finished floor making it difficult for the plaintiff to use, in violation of section 308.2.1 of the 2010 ADA Standards, whose resolution is readily achievable.
- k) The mirror is mounted higher than the maximum allowance of 40 inches above the finished floor to the reflecting surface making it difficult for the plaintiff to utilize, in violation of section 603.3 in the 2010 ADA Standards, whose resolution is readily achievable.
- l) The toilet paper dispenser is not in the compliant location of a minimum 7 inches and maximum 9 inches from the front of the toilet to the center line of the toilet paper as required making it difficult for the plaintiff to utilize, in violation of section 604.7 in the 2010 ADA Standards, whose resolution is readily achievable.
- m) The bathtub spray unit exceeds the maximum height of 48 inches making it difficult for the plaintiff to reach the hand held spray unit, in violation of sections 309.3 and 607.6 in the 2010 ADA Standards, whose resolution is readily achievable.
- n) The bathrub control requires tight grasping and twisting of the wrist making it difficult for the plaintiff to operate, in violation of sections 309.4 and 607.5 I the 2010 ADA Standards, whose resolution is readily achievable.
- o) The bathtub controls are not in the compliant location making it difficult for the plaintiff to operate, in violation of section 607.5 in the 2010 ADA Standards, whose resolution is readily achievable.
- p) The bathtub is missing the grab bars in the compliant locations on the wall making it difficult for the plaintiff to transfer from the chair into the bathtub, in violation of section 607.4.2.1, 607.4.2.2 and 607.4.2.3 in the 2010 ADA Standards, whose resolution is readily achievable.

- q) The side wall and rear wall grab bars are not in the compliant locations around the water closet as required making it difficult for the plaintiff to transfer from the chair to the toilet, in violation of sections 604.5.1 and 604.5.2 in the 2010 ADA Standards, whose resolution is readily achievable.
- r) The 60 inch clearance perpendicular from the side wall is not provided for the water closet making it difficult for the plaintiff to utilize the water closet, in violation of section 604.3.1 in the 2010 ADA Standards, whose resolution is readily achievable.
- s) The flush control is not located on the wide side of the water closet as required making it difficult for the plaintiff to operate, in violation of section 604.6 in the 2010 ADA Standards, whose resolution is readily achievable.
- t) There is not a seat provided that is capable of secure placement making it difficult for the plaintiff to use the bathtub, in violation of section 610.2 of the 2010 ADA Standards, whose resolution is readily achievable.
- u) The drain pipe and water lines are partially exposed and are in need of maintenance so that the drain pipe and water lines are fully insulated for the safety of the plaintiff, in violation of section 36.211 in the CFR, whose resolution is readily achievable.
- v) The trash receptacle and side wall grab bar obstructs the clear floor space for a forward approach to the lavatory making it difficult for the plaintiff to utilize, in violation of sections 606.2 in the 2010 ADA Standards, whose resolution is readily achievable.
- w) The towel rack is mounted higher than 48 inches and is obstructed by the water closet for an approach in violation of sections 308.2.2 and 308.3.2 in the 2010 ADA Standards, whose resolution is readily achievable.

Maintenance

- x) The accessible features of the facility are not maintained, creating barriers to access for the Plaintiff, as set forth herein, in violation of 28 CFR §36.211.

Number and Dispersement of Rooms

- x) The subject hotel lacks the required number of compliant disabled rooms and the compliant disabled rooms are not dispersed amongst the various classes of guest rooms in violation of Section 224.5 of the 2010 ADAAG.

10. The discriminatory violations described in paragraph 9 are not an exclusive list of the Defendant's ADA violations. Plaintiff requires the inspection of the Defendant's place of public accommodation in order to photograph and measure all of the discriminatory acts violating the ADA and all of the barriers to access. The individual Plaintiff, and all other individuals similarly situated, have been denied access to, and have been denied the benefits of services, programs and activities of the Defendant's buildings and its facilities, and have otherwise been discriminated against and damaged by the Defendant because of the Defendant's ADA violations, as set forth above. The individual Plaintiff, and all others similarly situated will continue to suffer such discrimination, injury and damage without the immediate relief provided by the ADA as requested herein. In order to remedy this discriminatory situation, the Plaintiff requires an inspection of the Defendant's place of public accommodation in order to determine all of the areas of non-compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act.

11. Defendant has discriminated against the individual Plaintiff by denying him access to full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages and/or accommodations of its place of public accommodation or commercial facility in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 12181 et seq. and 28 CFR 36.302 et seq. Furthermore, the Defendant continues to discriminate against the Plaintiff, and all those similarly situated by failing to make reasonable modifications in policies, practices or procedures, when such modifications are necessary to afford all offered goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages or accommodations to individuals with disabilities; and by failing to take such efforts that may be necessary to ensure that no individual with a disability is excluded, denied services, segregated or otherwise treated differently than other individuals because of the absence of auxiliary aids and services.

12. Plaintiff is without adequate remedy at law and is suffering irreparable harm. Considering the balance of hardships between the Plaintiff and Defendant, a remedy in equity is warranted. Furthermore, the public interest would not be disserved by a permanent injunction.

13. Plaintiff has retained the undersigned counsel and is entitled to recover attorney's fees, costs and litigation expenses from the Defendant pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 12205 and 28 CFR 36.505.

14. Defendant is required to remove the existing architectural barriers to the physically disabled when such removal is readily achievable for its place of public accommodation that has existed prior to January 26, 1993, 28 CFR 36.304(a); in the alternative, if there has been an alteration to Defendant's place of public accommodation since January 26, 1992, then the Defendant is required to ensure to the maximum extent feasible, that the altered portions of the facility are readily accessible to and useable by individuals with disabilities, including individuals who use wheelchairs, 28 CFR 36.402; and finally, if the Defendant's facility is one which was designed and constructed for first occupancy subsequent to January 26, 1993, as defined in 28 CFR 36.401, then the Defendant's facility must be readily accessible to and useable by individuals with disabilities as defined by the ADA.

15. Notice to Defendant is not required as a result of the Defendant's failure to cure the violations by January 26, 1992 (or January 26, 1993, if Defendant has 10 or fewer employees and gross receipts of $500,000 or less). All other conditions precedent have been met by Plaintiff or waived by the Defendant.

16. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 12188, this Court is provided with authority to grant Plaintiff Injunctive Relief, including an order to require the Defendant to alter Comfort Inn East to make those facilities readily accessible and useable to the Plaintiff and all other persons with disabilities as defined by the ADA; or by closing the facility until such time as the Defendant cures its violations of the ADA.

COUNT II
VIOLATION OF OHIO DISABILITY DISCRIMINATION LAW
O.R.C. § 4112.01 et seq.

17. Plaintiff restates the allegations of paragraphs 1-16 as if fully rewritten here.

18. The Defendant's property, Comfort Inn East, and the businesses therein, are

"place[s] of public accommodation" pursuant to O.R.C. §4112.01(A)(9).

19. Defendant has committed an unlawful act pursuant to O.R.C. §4112.02(G) by denying Plaintiff full enjoyment of its accommodations, advantages, facilities, or privileges. Plaintiff Rudolph Betancourt has experienced extensive barriers to access at the Comfort Inn East in the state of Ohio.

20. Pursuant to O.R.C. §4112.99, Plaintiff is entitled to compensatory damages, and attorneys fees and costs, in an amount to be determined at trial, as well as issuance of an injunction requiring Defendant to allow full and equal enjoyment of its goods, services, facilities, privileges, and advantages to disabled persons.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests:

a. The Court issue a Declaratory Judgment that determines that the Defendant at the commencement of the subject lawsuit is in violation of Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. § 12181 et seq.

b. Injunctive relief against the Defendant including an order to make all readily achievable alterations to the facility; or to make such facility readily accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities to the extent required by the ADA; and to require the Defendant to make reasonable modifications in policies, practices or procedures, when such modifications are necessary to afford all offered goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages or accommodations to individuals with disabilities; and by failing to take such steps that may be necessary to ensure that no individual with a disability is excluded, denied services, segregated or otherwise treated differently than other individuals because of the absence of auxiliary aids and services.

c. An award of attorney's fees, costs and litigation expenses pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 12205.

d. Such other relief as the Court deems just and proper, and/or is allowable under Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act.

e. For Count II, compensatory damages, and attorneys fees and costs, in an amount to be determined, as well as issuance of an injunction requiring Defendant to allow full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, and advantages to disabled persons.
